
Curriculum Vitae Jana Liebe

CEO of the ThEEN–Innovation Cluster
Thuringian Renewable Energies Network

Spokeswoman of Thuringian Sustainability Advisory Board
Member of the Thuringian Energy Advisory Board

Key areas of work & Research projects:

Cluster Management, Renewable Energies, Decarbonization of Industries,
Energy Efficiency of Buildings, Sector Coupling, Energy Storage

- ZO.RRO – Zero Carbon Cross Energy System (www.zorro.energy)
- smood® – smart neighborhood (www.smood-energy.de)

Career:

With rich experience as a leader in the renewable energy sector since 2008, Jana Liebe leads as managing director the ThEEN competence network and innovation cluster in the field of renewable energies, energy storage, energy efficiency and sector coupling, based in Erfurt, since 2014.

Core business are management and communication for the leading R&D projects “Zero Carbon Cross Energy System – ZO.RRO” as well as the regional growth core for livable, efficient, environmentally friendly neighborhoods “smood® – smart neighborhood”.

Previously, she worked as a graduate geographer (TU Dresden, Charles University Prague, CZ) in various research institutions in Germany (Thuringia and Saxony) and during this time has always been involved in sustainable economic, urban and regional development.

Jana Liebe also advises politics, is spokeswoman of Thuringian Sustainability Advisory Board, member of the Thuringian Energy Advisory Board and is networked Germany-wide as well as internationally in the field of renewable energies.

Contact:

Thüringer Erneuerbare Energien Netzwerk (ThEEN) e.V.
Schmidtstedter Straße 1 | D-99084 Erfurt

Tel.: +49 361 663 82 280 | Website: www.theen-ev.de/en